

Halloween Cookie Bag

Darla Watson @ scraphappensherewithdarla.com

All images copyright © 1990-2017 Stampin' Up! ®

Stampin' Up! Supplies Used:

- Stamps: Oh My Fright (168169)
- Inks: Secret Sea (165285)
- Cardstock: Basic White Thick (166782)

- Designer Paper: Spooktacular 6" x 6" Designer Series Paper (168219)
- Accessories: Flat 4" x 8" Cellophane Bag (167769); Black 3/8" Iridescent Ribbon (168181)
- Tools: Simply Scored (122334); Detail Scissors (170972)
- Miscellaneous: Stampin' Dimensionals (104430); Tear & Tape (154031)

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Score two pieces of the same Spooktacular DSP and score it at 1" and 5" with the image facing you. Turn once to the right and score at 1". They are marked in brown ink so you can see where to score. Then cut the bottom two squares completely out on one and just the flaps on the other.

2. Fold into a box and adhere with Tear & Tape.

3. Stamp sentiment onto a $\frac{3}{4}$ " x $2\frac{1}{2}$ " piece of Basic White Thick cardstock using Secret Sea Ink and attach it to the Halloween bag using Stampin' Dimensionals.

4. Place cookie into a 4" x 8" cellophane bag and tie a bow around it using Black $\frac{3}{8}$ " Iridescent Ribbon and add it to the bag.

5. You can make 24 of these bags with one pack of the Spooktacular DSP. Here are the four faces made into bags, you can also use the other side of the dsp!

